Outdoor demonstrations

Back by popular demand! We'll be getting outside (and not just to take in the beautiful countryside). We'll be hosting some practical pest management demonstrations. We've teamed up with some great speakers who know their topics through-and-through, and are happy to share their expertise with visitors.

9.30-10.15

ERAs IN ACTION

John Horsley and Natalie Bungay, BPCA

Environmental risk assessments (ERAs) have been discussed for a long time. The industry is aware that we have to ensure we consider the risks posed by the use of rodenticides. But are you doing them right? In this practical demonstration, we will look at templates and procedures for ERAs as well as carrying out an actual live ERA on site!

10.30-11.15

WORKING AT HEIGHT - CHOOSING THE RIGHT HIRE EQUIPMENT

Natalie Bardell, Mike Annett and Luke Robinson, WowNow Hire

Sometimes, working at height can be a concerning option. When a client calls and they need pest control completed at height, do you pause to decide what powered access to use? Do you struggle with waste removal? WowNow Hire will be at the PPC Live event to demonstrate the ease of working at height. We are on hand to advise and work with BPCA members, on the best equipment and waste removal options to help you get the job done.

13.00-13.45

ADDING BLUEFUME BUILDING FUMIGATION TO YOUR RANGE OF SERVICES

Martin Cobbald, Dealey Environmental

Bluefume is the most effective building fumigant available in the UK and it is becoming available to pest control servicing companies in 2023. With this short presentation, Martin Cobbald will show how the Bluefume application system works, how to apply Bluefume in a building fumigation scenario and how you can add it to your service portfolio for high risk customers.

14.00-14.45

BIOACOUSTIC BIRD MANAGEMENT: WHY IT WORKS AND WHY IT DOESN'T

Peter Bowers-Davis, Integrum Services

Demonstration and discussion of why bioacoustics often fails, how and where it works and how to deploy and use it successfully.

11.30-12.15

OLD MEETS NEW: TRADITIONAL TOOLS FOR MODERN RURAL PEST MANAGEMENT

Simon Whitehead, Pakefield Ferrets

Simon Whitehead will be giving a talk on the intricacies and differences in the usage and breeding of ferrets for modern day rabbit management. He'll also discuss the logic behind his mindset, findings and experience that has cemented him as a world-leading authority on the subject. Simon will cover in detail what has worked for him in a result-driven industry. For over forty years he has practised ferreting; twenty-five working for himself on some of the most sensitive sites in and around the UK.

Indoor seminars

PPC LIVE
SHOWGUIDE

Our 100-seat silent indoor seminar theatre employs headphones so you won't miss a single word of the presenters. Get there early to make sure you get a good seat!

9.30-10.15

BED BUGS AND BED BUG DETECTION DOGS IN 2023

Dr Richard Naylor, Alexia Naylor and Brian Leith, Bed Bug Foundation CIC

Entomologist, Dr Richard Naylor of the Bed Bug Foundation CIC, provides an overview of the current bed bug situation in different sectors. Dr Naylor also discusses insecticide resistance and the impact this has on modern bed bug management strategies. Detection dog trainer Brian Leith then discusses how bed bug detection dogs are typically used to assist the bed bug management industry, particularly in multiple occupancy buildings and hotels. Brian and his bed bug detection dog Benji finish with a practical demonstration.

GETTING STRATEGIC WITH FIELD RESEARCH AS A PEST CONTROLLER

Chloe Smith and Adam Wilson, Pest Solutions

With behavioural resistance more common and an increase of attacks on the toolbox of the professional pest controller, how can we get strategic about incorporating essential field research into our everyday role so we can become data-rich in the battle to protect the future of our industry?

11.30-12.00

INVASIVE SPECIES: UPCOMING THREATS, A NEW STRATEGY AND INSPECTORATE

Niall Moore and Iain Henderson, Non Native Species Secretariat and Non Native Species Inspectorate

Invasive non-native species of animals and plants are a large and growing threat to the UK. We will outline progress, detail new priorities and species threats - including how pest controllers can help in the critical work of the inspectorate and deliver the GB Strategy more widely.

12.15-12.45

HELP! THE PRODUCT LABEL HAS CHANGED - AND WHY DO I HAVE TO DO THIS? YOUR REGULATORY QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Dawn Kirby, Rentokil

Everything seems to be changing: the product label, what you can use, and how you can use it. This presentation will help to explain some reasons behind the changes and how to stay compliant.

13.00-13.45

ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS FOR PEST PROFESSIONALS

John Horsley, BPCA Alex Wade, Wade Environmental

John and Alex will explore the root cause for a variety of pest species. This will be an informative discussion with the opportunity to get involved and put your scenarios to the dynamic duo.

14.00-14.45

NON-CHEMICAL RODENT CONTROL (NOCHERO) - WERE SNAP TRAPS A VIABLE REPLACEMENT FOR CHEMICAL CONTROL IN A LARGE BROWN RAT INFESTATION?

Sharon Hughes, BASF

European guidelines have recently been published for the evaluation of non-chemical rodent control (NoCheRo), particularly rodent snap traps, as such a viable alternative. BASF undertook a 21-day rural trial on a market-leading rat snap trap according to these guidelines. The farm site had a heavy Brown rat (Rattus norvegicus) infestation. The aim of the trial was to assess the efficacy of the snap traps and record any target and non-target humaneness or welfare concerns. The efficacy of the snap traps was measured using pre- and post-trapping census indices (census diet takes and tracking patch scores) to rat record activity.

15.00-15.45

HOW TO SUCCESSFULLY RETAIN AND TRAIN YOUR EXISTING WORKFORCE

Cai Griffiths and Rebecca Villiers-Ginns, Impact Futures

As the sector continues to evolve, it is more important than ever for leaders to focus on people, processes, and the development of essential skills. During this session Impact Futures will showcase strategies and current trends for the successful delivery of apprenticeships in 2023.

Have your team meeting at PPC Live

With 6+ CPD points per person up for grabs, why not bring your whole team? We'll even provide the bacon sandwiches and coffees if you pre-register.

We want to give you the chance to see new ideas and get some hands-on experience while you're at the show. PPC Live is all about how things work and giving you the tools to help you in the field.

9.30-10.15

HOW-TO: PRACTICAL APPLICATION EQUIPMENT FOR SURFACE SPRAY TREATMENTS

Avril Turner, Killgerm

This practical session will demonstrate essential calibration techniques for a five-litre pneumatic sprayer and guidance for maintenance. There will also be a demo of the electrostatic sprayer, showcasing one of the latest innovations in application equipment.

12.15-13.00

HOW-TO: GETTING HANDS-ON WITH YOUR INSECT LIGHT TRAP (ILT)

Tom Holmes, Edialux

Learn how to save time and money with effective servicing and fault finding of insect light traps. A well-designed and maintained insect light trap can last many years, even within the toughest environments. However, sometimes things do go wrong. So how do you safely and quickly identify the fault, correct it and have the ILT up and running within minutes?

14.45-15.45

HOW-TO: BASIC PRINCIPLES OF ID

Alex Wade, Wade Environmental
Paul Westgate, Veritas Pest Consultancy

Developing insect identification skills is an ongoing task. If you are attending PPC live and want some practical assistance to hone your insect identification skills why not pop along to the insect identification session. If you have some insects you want to bring along that would be great if not come along and look at some of the samples on show. Microscopes, identification tools and friendly chat will all be provided.

BRING IN YOUR OWN INSECT SAMPLES

10.45-11.30

HOW-TO: THE LITERAL INS AND OUTS OF BIRD NETTING

Elaine Bliss, PestFix

Learn about and get hands-on with the entrance and exit features involved in bird netting. Who are they for, why are they used and why is it important to install them correctly.

13.30-14.15 SPONSORED

HOW-TO: DIGITAL PEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICAL SET-UP

Gary Nicholas, Envu

Learn how easy it is to establish and manage an automated, up-to-the-minute rodent programme with full verification data.

Make the most of your visit

You've got around 12 hours of seminars and demos available, plus networking and exhibitors to see, and only seven hours to fit it all in. So let's get planning!

PPC LIVE PRE-SHOW CHECKLIST

REGISTER TODAY

Beat the queues for admission by pre-registering online. It takes less than two minutes and you'll get a free breakfast roll and hot drink on arrival! ppconline.org/register

PLUS 1...AND THEN SOME

Make a day of it and invite some pestie pals. If you're the boss, schedule it as a team building session and bring the whole gang! It adds value to your business in many ways.

CHECK OUT THE LOCAL AREA

If you're travelling far, it's worth finding a hotel (there are plenty) and spending some time in beautiful Harrogate. Known for its fabulous gardens, relaxing spas, and a great bar and restaurant scene, why not take advantage while you're here?

TELL THE WORLD

Going to events like this helps show your clients that you're more than just a "rat catcher": you're serious about your profession. Do a social media update, a news item on your website or even pop it on your 'out-of-office'. And while you're doing that...

TIME TO STRATEGISE

The full agenda and exhibitors floor plan are out now so make good use of them. With 50+ exhibitors, a discussion area, seminars, and both indoor and outdoor demonstrations, you may need to strategise! Highlight any presentations or exhibitors you really want to visit.

DON'T FORGET TO PACK YOUR BUSINESS CARDS!

Okay, I'll admit, I do this all the time (luckily for me our events manager always brings spares, thanks Lauren!). But events are great for making connections, so have a pocket full of business cards ready to hand out. You never know where the right conversation might lead!
